

Estate Planning Review

Your lawyer will use the information you provide in this questionnaire:

1. To help you organize personal and financial information so that you can assess your current estate plans and evaluate whether changes are desired or required.
2. To provide your estate planning attorney with the information needed to make a similar analysis.
3. To help you evaluate your lawyer's estate planning recommendations. The estate plan is your plan, not your lawyer's, and you must be satisfied that it is workable.

The information you provide must be as accurate as possible. If you are uncertain about exact information, tell your lawyer that and give your best assessment. If your lawyer believes that exact information is required, he or she will ask you to be more precise. You may provide as much or as little information as you want. We recognize that this questionnaire is a fairly intrusive document. Keep in mind, however, that the more complete the information is, the better it will equip you and your lawyer throughout the planning process to come up with the best possible estate planning alternatives. Your information will be kept confidential by your lawyer unless you authorize or request its release to others.

EXECUTOR

Your executor has the responsibility to wind up your affairs at your death, see to it that your assets are collected, that claims, expenses, and estate and inheritance taxes are paid, and then distribute your property to trustees or others you have named. It is a task of limited duration, substantial responsibility, and much work.

TRUSTEES

Your trustees have the responsibility for the long-range management of property that is to be held in trust for the benefit of the beneficiaries of trusts you may create. Depending on the terms of the trust, there may be adverse tax consequences if a trustee has an interest or possible interest in the trust, although usually if the trustee's discretion is limited those adverse tax consequences are similarly limited. A trustee can be a corporation (qualified to act) or individual. You may choose to have co-trustees, one of which may or may not be a corporation. Because corporate trustees must charge fees for their services, they may decline to accept small trusts. Their fees to administer a small trust may turn out to be disproportionately large if they are to cover their costs in handling the trust. In general, choose a trustee with the following qualities: integrity, mature judgment, fiscal responsibility, and reasonable business and investment acumen. If you wish to select co-trustees, you may want to choose them for how well their individual strengths complement each other. Frequently, the same person(s) or corporation selected as executor(s) may be designated as trustee(s).

OTHER INTERESTS OF CURRENT OR FUTURE VALUE

Interests in trusts. Describe any trusts created by you, by any other person, such as a parent or ancestor, in which you or a member of your immediate family has a right to receive distributions of income or principal, whether or not such distributions are actually being received or anticipated in the future. Be as specific as you can. If possible, submit a copy of the trust agreement. If the trust agreement is not available, show the date the trust was created, whether it can be amended or changed, whether someone has a power of appointment over it, when the trust terminates, and who will receive the trust property upon termination. Also, state the approximate current value of the trust and the annual income from it.

Anticipated inheritances. If you or any other members of your immediate family are likely to receive substantial inheritances in the foreseeable future from persons other than yourself or your spouse, describe your best estimate of the value and the nature of each inheritance.

Other assets or interests of value. Describe the general nature, form of ownership, and your estimate of the value of any asset or interest of value that does not seem to fit in any of the categories above.

LIABILITIES CURRENT OR FUTURE VALUE

Describe here substantial financial liabilities not reflected in the asset information you have provided above. If they are secured, indicate the nature of the security. Also show any substantial contingent liabilities, such as personal guarantees you have made on obligations of a business, a family member, or any other person. Indicate whether you have insured against any of these obligations in the event of your death, or if the obligations do not survive your death.

PERSONAL ESTATE PLANNING OBJECTIVES

How would you dispose of your estate at your death if there were no such thing as estate or inheritance taxes?

---

---

In the event of your death, would your spouse or children be likely to receive income from sources other than your estate, such as the continuance or resumption by your spouse of his or her vocation or profession?

---

---

Describe any personal objectives you have for your family and your estate that override possible adverse tax consequences arising from trying to achieve them.

---
